MISSIONS STRATEGY

The Missionary Task

Spreading the gospel, making disciples, and establishing self-sustaining churches among unreached peoples and places. Its six components overlap and recur; they are not a checklist.

Entry

Locating a people or place, gaining access, and learning their language and culture.

IN PRACTICE

Mapping, prayer walking, visiting gathering places, discovery conversations.

ASK YOURSELF

Do I know where they live, work, shop, play, and worship?

Evangelism

Sharing the gospel faithfully and clearly; no one is saved without hearing and believing it.

IN PRACTICE

Personal testimony, clear gospel presentations, invitations to read Scripture.

ASK YOURSELF

Who among this people has heard the gospel clearly?

Discipleship

Helping believers learn, obey, and be conformed to the image of Christ by the Spirit.

IN PRACTICE

Bible studies in homes and networks; modeling prayer and other spiritual disciplines.

ASK YOURSELF

Is anyone reading Scripture with me in their own setting?

At the center of all six: prayer and abiding in Christ

Healthy Church Formation

Gathering believers into local churches, the normal setting for discipleship.

IN PRACTICE

Forming believers into congregations rooted in their own culture and networks.

ASK YOURSELF

What kind of church could form within this culture?

Leadership Development

Equipping leaders in knowledge, character, and skill to teach, shepherd, and evangelize.

IN PRACTICE

Identifying people of influence and spiritual hunger, then equipping them to lead.

ASK YOURSELF

Who in this community could lead others?

Exit to Partnership

Moving from model to assist to watch to leave, and on into ongoing partnership without unhealthy dependence.

IN PRACTICE

Planning the handoff from the start, so leadership rests with local believers.

ASK YOURSELF

Who carries this when I leave?

Keelan Cook
keelancook.com

Adapted from International Mission Board, Foundations, v. 4 (Richmond, VA: IMB, 2022).